

MUGELLO RACING WEEKEND: 36 DRIVERS FOR A NEW RECORD GRID!

📅 07/10/2021 ⌚ 10:52

Another record of drivers in its debut year for the Formula Regional European Championship by Alpine, co-organized by ACI Sport and Alpine. 36 cars, the new record number of FIA-certified series, will be driven this coming weekend on the Mugello Circuit, the racing venue based in the beautiful Italian region of Tuscany. After the great line-up at the passed round, the eighth of the season, in Valencia, with 34 drivers, two wild cards have entered the series, Arias Deukmedjian, from the USA, who has entered in the line-up of FA Racing, and Sami Meguetounif, French, and competing with R-ace GP.

Sami Meguetounif, already deployed by R-Ace in the Italian and German Formula 4 championships in 2021, will thus be able to make his debut in the Formula Regional by Alpine.

Arias Deukmedjian has been racing in the United States in F4 and Formula Regional, and is ready for a new challenge in the geographical heart of world motorsport.

The competition will start already today with a 4 hours session of the pre-event collective tests, starting at 14.00.

On Friday 8, the first 50 minutes collective test will start at 10.15, while the second will be held starting at 14.00.

On Saturday Qualifying Session 1 will be held from 9.30, while Race 1 will start at 14.55.

On Sunday Qualifying Session 2 will be held at 9.00, while Race 2 will start at 14.40.

All times are local (CET).

Collective tests will be followed live timing,